President McKinley and Members of Cabinet in Attendance-Remains Removed to New York.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Rear Admiral John L. Worden, retired, of the navy, took place this morning at St. John's P. E. Church, at 10:30 o'clock. The President and his private secretary were present, as were all the members of the cabinet, with the excption of Secretaries Bliss, Gage, Alger and Sherman. There were but few persons present at the church, with the exception of those in official circles. The remains were conveved to the church in the hearse, which was preceded by the carriages containing the honorary pallbearers, those containing the relatives of the deceased following. The honorary pallbearers were Secretary of the Navy John D. Long, Justice Horace Gray, Judge J. C., Bancroft Davis, Judge John Davis, General J. G. Park General John Davis, General J. G. Park General Nelson A. Miles and Colonel Archibald Hopkins. A guard of twelve blue jackets from the navy yard, under command of Lieutenant Reginald F. Nicholson, marched on each side of the hearse, forming a bodyguard. On the arrival of the cortege at the church the hearse was driven up at the H street side and the casket lifted out by the sailors.

It was wrapped in an American flag, with the sword and other insignia of a rear admiral's rank resting on the top. The casket was taken inside the church and placed in front of the altar. The honorary pallbearers were given places near it.

President and Cabinet Attend. The President came in at the 16th street entrance, with the others in attendance. he having ridden over from the Executive Mansion in his private carriage. He was accompanied by his private secretary, Secretaries Wilson and Gary and Attorney General McKenna. The party took seats up front.

The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Mackay-Smith, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. E. M. Paddock, his assistant, and were according to the Episcopal ritual. The vested choir rendered the music, among others the hymns "Nearer, My God, to Thee." and "Lead, Kindly Light," being rendered in a most touching manner. There were a few handsome floral offerings as a large display was not manner. There were a few nandsome floral offerings, as a large display was not wished for by the family. Driven to Depot.

At the conclusion of the services, the casket was replaced in the hearse, which was driven to the Pennsylvania depot. The remains were taken to Pawlings, N. Y., where they will be laid to rest at the side of the grave of a son of the deceased, the late Captain Worden of the army. They were accompanied to the depot by the pallbearers, the relatives and sailors, who went with the remains to Pawlings. The ashers at the church were Lieuten-ants J. G. Gibbons, T. D. Griffin, A. E. Cul-ver and Passed Assistant Engineer H. F. Norton, U. S. N.

Adverse Recommendation.

In answer to the request of Wm. F. Mattingly that proceedings be instituted to cendemn highways through lands of the estate of Francis Mattingly, on the east side of 14th street extended, and north of Whitney avenue, Assistant Engineer Rich-ards, in charge of the highway plans,

"There seems to be no present demand for the streets, as 14th street road is wide enough for travel and no east or west traf-fic is necessary. The first section is already overburdened with streets to be condemned, and a consideration of economy seems to forbid this action."

Interred at Arlington.

The Biggest Haul of the Season.

And it took the combined strength of the six SAKS' STORES to land it. It's a purchase in the big and little Boys' behalf—of Light and Heavy Weight Overcoats and Reefers—the entire stock of a manufacturer whose ambition to excel led him into making finer garments than the trade demanded. Never in our thirty years' experience have we seen such creations for juveniles. The finest fabrics money could buy—the finest lining and trimmings to be had—the most killed, expert artists that could be found. Each let is a satorial masterpiece. Search from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and you won't find anything that approaches them in elegance and excellence. For two days-Thursday and Friday-we are going to give you YOUR CHOICE FOR LESS THAN THEY COST-mark that-FOR LESS THAN THEY COST THE MAKER. Our price barely covers the cost of the fabrics. You've never had such an opportunity - because there have never been such Coats made before - you couldn't enjoy it now but for the Saks retailing ability through its many outlets.

Boys' Fall-Weight Overcoats.

As we bought all this maker had we took these fall weights-just four lots of them-and we propose to make the reductions in these even greater than on the winter weights. It multiplies the benefits to be derived by you.

PROPERTY NOT SOLD.

No Adequate Bids for Marshall Hall Steamboats. The property of the Marshall Hall Steamboat Company was put up for sale at public auction at the company's wharf at the feot of 7th street this morning at 11 o'clock. don, who is said to have starved to death There were no bids received either for the property as an entirety or for any part of it that in the judgment of the receivers would be a fair price and the property was therefore withdrawn. It will be sold at private sale. The property comprises two pieces of land on the river front in St. Mary's and Prince George's counties, Md., the two boats, River Queel and Charles Macalester, and the right to the wharf at the foot of 7th street. The property was first offered as a whole and the highest bid received was $25,000. The land and the boats were then offered separately and the excursion grounds and the Macalester together, but no bidders manifested a desire to become the owners of the property.

SUBURBAN STREETS.

Reasons Why Request From Brook land Cannot Be Complied With. Several weeks ago, Mr. Benjamin F. Sparhawk, representing the taxpayers and residents of Brookland located south of Galveston and east of 12th street northeast, called the attention of the Commissioners to the bad condition of the streets in that section and requested the grading and graveling of 13th street from Emporia street to Rhode Island avenue, and further, that a walk be laid on the east side of said from Galveston street to Rhode After reference to the engineer department, the Commissioners approved the fol-lowing recommendation of Capt. Beach lowing recommendation of Capt. Beach upon the matter:

"Respectfully returned, with recommendation that Mr. Sparhawk be informed that the appropriation for Emporia street is specific, and under the act of Congress cannot be applied for any other purpose than improving this street; that the intersection of 13th street and Emporia street has been so graded as to afford access to Emporia street. Thirteenth street in South Brookland has not been brought to grade, and under this circumstance and the limitand under this circumstance and the limit-ed appropriation for repairs to county roads, and the limited amount of travel over this street, it is believed inadvisable to expend any funds upon it."

Suit for Damages.

The Merchants' Parcel Delivery Company was made the defendant today in a suit instituted by Lena Shaw, who claims $5,000 damages, charging that the 13th of last October she was knocked down at 9th and R streets by one of the company's wagons, suffering a broken leg. She is represented by Attorney H. B. Moulton.

VICTIM OF SPANISH BRUTALITY.

England May Demand Reparation for Correspondent Hughes' Death. The London Daily Chronicle comments on the death in Cuba last week of W. Hughes, correspondent of Black and White of Lonin the streets, after having been maltreated and robbed by Spanish guerrillas, and says:

"If the story of his death is true fresh execration of Spanish action will arise, and the British government may have something to say. Hughes was found dead on the Prado, Hayana, last Thursday night. He had re-cently visited Pinar del Rio, with a pass from the military governor. It is said that while there Spanish guerrillas in broad daylight, and in the presence of Spanish officers, assaulted and robbed him of every-thing excent his clothes.

thirg except his clothes. Hughes, it is alleged, appealed to the mil-itary commander, and demanded the restitution of his property, but was only laughed at. He was obliged to return to Havana, walking the entire distance, and reached the city ragged and starving. Having lost his passport, he could not establish his identity or communicate with his friends in England. He starved to death in the streets. Hughes had earned an excellent reputation as a war correspondent in Africa, hav-ing followed the Soudan expedition, and also traveled in western Africa. The case has been reported to the British consul.

OFFER TO SENORITA CISNEROS. Georgia Bank President Wants Her for Cashier.

The Atlanta Constitution says: "Evange

lina Cossio y Cisneros, the pretty Cuban girl who was rescued from the Spanish prison and is now being lionized in New York, may come to Georgia to live. Col. W. S. Witham, who is the champion bank president of the world, being at the head of no less than twenty-one, wired her to come here to take a place as cashler in one of his numerous financial institutions. He thinks she will need a job soon, and so has offered her one, which will be held open as long as she desires, pending the metropolitan festivities, of which she is now the chief figure. Mr. Witham thinks the pretty chief figure. Mr. Witham thinks the pretty Cuban girl can get along a while on congratulations and bouquets, but will finally have to go to work like other people who are not rich, so he sent her the following telegram:

"Senorita Evangelina Cossio y Cisneros, Waldorf Hotel, New York: We tender you cashiership of one of our non-breakable and frequent dividend-paying banks in the state of Georgia."

Edward Coles' Yacht Sunk. The fine schooner yacht Belle, owned by Edward Coles of New York, was sunk Monday night off Norwalk harbor by striking some floating wreckage. The three men on board escaped to the shore in a small boat, after a hard struggle in a high sea.

WOMAN EDITOR IN JAIL.

Mrs. Kate G. Warner of the Williman-tic Sunday Herald.

Kate G. Warner, editor of the Willimantic, Conn., Sunday Herald, has been arrested on a charge of criminal libel. She was arraigned in the police court yesterday and bound over in $400 ball for trial in the superior court. She spent Monday night in jail, being unable to find a bondsman, and at a late hour yesterday afternoon was still unable to get bail. Her husband, the business manager of the paper, was arrested at the same time, and is in the same predicament. It is probable that both will be taken to the county seat and held till the day of trial.

In an interview Mrs. Warner said: "I think I am the first woman ever put under arrest for libel in New England, if not in the United States. But," she added bravely. "my paper will come out as usual on Sun-day morning—unless they keep me in jail." She was arrested on account of an article printed in last Sunday's Herald regarding Prosecuting Agent Leonard, the official to whom is assigned the task of keeping saloons closed on Sundays. Her style of treatment admits of no misunderstanding. This is a part of it:

"There is no denying the fact that was

This is a part of it:

"There is no denying the fact that rum is sold in Willimantic on Sundays. Mr. Leonard knows that rum sellers in Willimantic are selling on Sunday. Why doesn't he do his duty and stop them?"

Then follows several paragraphs of very breezy suggestions as to the cause, and those breezy suggestions caused the warrant and the arrest.

Deserters Arrested.

Two deserters were arrested by the police early this morring. One of them was Henry A. Cole, a Forr Myer cavalryman, twenty-three years old, and the other was a colored boy ramed Henry Johnson, sixteen years old. The former was turned over to an officer from the fort, and the latter was returned to the board of children's guardians.

Modern Improvements Secured. Register of Wills McGill has completed the fire-proof arrangement of his office, as well as the fitting up of the office with other needed modern improvements, for which, after a long struggle, the register secured an appropriation at the recent session of Congress. The office is not only fitted up with one of the finest fire-proof vaults in the country, but its capacity has also been doubled. It is provided with the most modern of metallic shelving, roller shelves and a great reference table, the business office being also provided with such improvements, all making the valuable records of the office practically safe against destruction both by fire and handling.

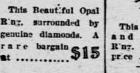

It matters little what it is that you want—whether a situation or a servant—a "want" ad. in The Star will reach the person who can fill your need.
